Speaker bios:

Mayor Karen Tingle Sames

Currently serving in her first term as Mayor, Karen Tingle-Sames previously served three terms on the Georgetown City Council. Karen is a lifelong resident of Georgetown and 1986 graduate of Georgetown College. Holding a Kentucky Masters in floral design, Karen has worked at her family's florist and gift shop, The Carriage House, since 1971. A member of Victory Life Church, Karen lives with her husband Kevin and Daisy their three year old champion Weimeramer.

"Government at any level cannot be effective without the proper discipline and management behind the Leader".

—Mayor Karen Tingle Sames

Jacky Ammerman, CAP

A lifetime resident of Georgetown, Jacky has been employed with Toyota for over 22 years. Her career with Toyota has provided her the knowledge and experience to become a self—proclaimed computer power user. Jacky's current assignment is at Toyota's North American premier training facility located on the Georgetown campus. With her focus now shifting to the field of education, training and development, she has become very active in providing computer/software education for co-workers as well as her IAAP colleagues. A member of the Blue Grass Chapter of IAAP since 2004, Jacky has served in various leadership roles at chapter and division level and is currently serving as Kentucky Division President.

Pam Hogge, CPS/CAP

Pam is a member of the Blue Grass Chapter and has served in several leadership roles to include Chapter President. Executive Assistant to the Superintendent at Madison County Schools, Pam can share a lot of insight in maintaining "Grace Under Pressure". This workshop helps attendees realize some of the challenges that present themselves each day and an opportunity to participate in group discussions to learn how others have handled these situations.

Cheri Collins, CPS/CAP/MOS

Cheri is a member of the Louisville Chapter and has served in leadership roles at chapter and division levels to include Division President. Cheri is an Operations Systems Analyst in the Deposit Recoveries Unit at PNC Bank. With vast knowledge in the financial field and past experience as Division Treasurer, Cheri's presentation will help attendees gain a deeper understanding of the required "Balancing Act" of managing fiscal responsibility with strategic planning and thinking.
