

“NAME THE MASCOT” CONTEST

If you attended the KY Division Annual Meeting in Bowling Green (6/3 -6/5) you might recognize the monkey. This little monkey figure was donated to the Division RTF fund raising activity by Dottie Everly, CPS. During my retail therapy session at the RTF table I found, fell in love with and purchased the little monkey. Because the monkey is a vintage item and is delicate I seated it ON the head table for the remaining business sessions. I made a small paper sign for the monkey – “IAAP – it’s not monkey business”. Many members would stop by to check out and inquire about the monkey as well as comment on how cute it is.

Because the adorable little monkey garnered so much attention, I have ‘appointed’ it as my IAAP mascot for this fiscal year and will use the adorable figure to promote IAAP. In addition to naming the monkey, I will be asking members to periodically submit ‘quotes’ that promote IAAP – the quotes will be used with the monkey in pictures (example above) and at meetings.

First item of business.... NAME THE MASCOT. What better way to do this than to have a contest? I reserve the rights, as owner of the monkey and sponsor of this activity, to be judge/juror and select the name from submissions received. As owner of the monkey, I will provide a gift to the member who submits the winning entry. NOTE: The division will not incur any expenses from the “Name the Mascot” contest.

- The monkey has not been deemed male or female.
- The contest will run through 7/31/10.
- The contest is open to all Kentucky Division members – this includes Chapter members and Division At Large members.
- The winner will be announced as the Leadership Conference on Saturday, August 14, 2010.
- Submissions may be emailed to: Jacky@iaap-kydivision.org.
